At SAY IT NOW, we recognise powerful communicators connect and influence others effortlessly. Join us in unlocking your communication potential.

Our Purpose

Connect Within, Influence Beyond.

Fundamentally, connection forms the bedrock of human relationships, effective communication and influential leadership. Achieving genuine influence necessitates alignment within ourselves-harmony between our mind, body and voice. Only through this mind, body and voice congruency, can we unlock the ability to extend our influence beyond, thereby making a profound impact on others.

We realise that no training solution is the same and therefore, prioritise a thorough understanding of the needs and concerns of our clients and crafting specific training programs and/or individual coaching. Let us help you achieve your intended goals.

We strive to develop powerful communicators and visionary leaders, who foster connections, wield influence, and drive positive workplace transformations for a better world.

Our Services

Effective leadership communication builds trust, drives action, engages employees and retains top talent.

SAY IT NOW develops specialised programs aimed at training and coaching managers, emerging leaders and C-suite executives to establish their core messages and communicate their vision and goals with confidence, clarity and credibility.

When you contact SAY IT NOW you will be directed to the expert who will do the work, not the salesperson.

We offer a range of tailored services designed to elevate executive and leadership skills across industries, equipping clients with the gravitas, charisma and executive presence necessary to thrive in a rapidly changing competitive professional landscape. Contact the SAY IT NOW team to discuss how our services can benefit you.

The one easy way to become 50% more than you are now, is to hone your communication skills. You can have all the brainpower in the world, but you have to be able to transmit it.”

Warren Buffett.

Group Training

We offer flexible, adaptable training tailored to your industry or service, ensuring maximum value with knowledge transformed into improved performance, delivering a substantial return on investment.

Collaborating closely with you, our aim is to develop programs that tackle prevalent leadership and communication hurdles head-on; by addressing key challenges with solutions such as:

- ✓ Fortifying leadership trust.
- ✓ Adapting communication styles for impact.
- ✓ Crafting presentation, pitching and storytelling skills.
- ✓ Inspiring influence: leading through emotional intelligence.

One-On-One Executive Coaching

Enhance your leadership skills, elevate your emotional intelligence and refine communication strategies by embarking on a personalised executive coaching journey designed for managers, emerging leaders and C-suite executives. Experience the advantages of tailored coaching and mentorship provided by industry-accredited professionals. This coaching aims to cultivate the formidable communicator within, enabling you to excel in your professional journey – a game changing asset for you and your company's success.

What can I say.....? You were superb! Read the room and the very diverse group of people with great sensitivity and acuity.

What most impressed me, and came back to me in the feedback, was how you so elegantly demonstrated what you were saying and teaching at the time you were doing it. True consummate mastery of your craft and knowledge. Bravo!!

And thank you Maree.”

SAY IT NOW

At SAY IT NOW, we actively embrace social responsibility by providing pro bono training and coaching aimed at enhancing communication and leadership skills for charities and not-for-profits. Our commitment extends to serving our community through these initiatives.

We take pride in our partnerships with the following organisations:

- ✓ Suited to Success
- ✓ Micah Projects
- ✓ Zonta Club of Brisbane City Heart
- ✓ Access Community Services Ltd
- ✓ English Speaking Union

As a professional speaker, my voice is my signature.... Maree has repeatedly helped me both understand the science of voice and the art of how it applies to me. My career continues because of her knowledge and attention to detail. There are plenty of people who are knowledgeable about voice and speaking...yet, you wouldn't find someone who applies that knowledge with such care and persistence."
